FAQ

Q: What is the HuJews conclave?

A: Conclave is an annual North-American teen and college conference sponsored by the Society for Humanistic Judaism.

Q: Who goes to conclave?

A: Humanistic Jewish teens and young adults ranging in age from eighth grade through college students. People come from across the United States and Canada.

Q: What do people do there?

A: Conclave is a weekend of fun, insight, and discovery. It enables young Humanistic Jews to connect with peers from all over the United States and Canada, while exploring and becoming more connected with Humanism and Judaism.

Q: Can you give me some examples of activities?

A: Certainly! Every conclave includes thought-provoking discussions, fun-filled workshops, sightseeing, a rewarding community service activity, Humanistic Shabbat and Havdala services, being together and finding people who may think about Judaism the same way you do!

This year's conclave will be held in Washington DC. We have lots of great activities planned, including:

- Capitol Mall and Monuments Tour
- Volunteering at a Food Bank/Kitchen
- Museums
- Social Justice Activity
